

ASHDOWN PROBUS OUTING

MONDAY 3rd JUNE 2019

Lunch at Ye Olde Watling pub in the City of London and visit to The Skinners' Livery Hall

After lunch at Ye Olde Watling, Watling Street, EC4M 9BR - a unique City pub with a rich history on the historic Roman Road, Watling Street we'll walk to Dowgate Hill for the tour of Skinners Hall commencing at 2.30 p.m. lasting approximately 90 minutes. Refreshments are not included in the tour.

The Skinners' Company is one of the 'Great Twelve' livery companies of London. The Beadle will offer a history of the Livery Company and provide a unique insight into the historic building, referring to its wealth of architectural features and historical content. Tours are limited to group(s) and individuals of up to forty so there may be other visitors alongside us. Website: <http://www.skinners.org.uk>

£ 7.50 per person (plus personal travel and lunch costs)

You can reserve your place by using the RSVP function on the website ashdownprobus.org.uk or by completing the tear-off slip below...
