WHAT IS PROBUS?

PROBUS is NOT a fundraising organisation

PROBUS exists to provide a social forum, fellowship and friendship for like-minded people

PROBUS is not affiliated to a central organising body

Each PROBUS Club sets its own rules

The origins of PROBUS were with Rotary, who sponsored the first clubs

PROBUS Clubs may be mixed gender, men only or women only

PROBUS Clubs organise functions, sporting and social events, outings and even holidays for members, partners and guests.

There are no upper or lower age limits

WHAT IS PROBUS?

A PROBUS Club is a local association of retired and semi-retired PROfessional and BUSiness people, and others who have had some measure of responsibility in any field of worthy endeavour, who are of character and respected in their communities.

Clubs meet regularly for fellowship and an extension of their interests. Each club is autonomous and chooses its own rules and programme.

ASHDOWN PROBUS CLUB

Ashdown Probus Club meets once a month for lunch followed by a short presentation by a guest speaker. The club organises various activities such as Ten Pin bowling, Croquet and Walking groups for members. There is also an active Golf section. Functions and Outings to which partners and friends may be invited are also a feature of the annual programme.

Ashdown Probus Club elects its own officers - a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and committee members covering membership, lunch and speaker selection.

Ashdown Probus Club does not exist to raise money for charity, although the club may run occasional fund-raising events and raffles.

Please see the Ashdown Probus Club website for further details. www.ashdownprobus.org.uk

PROBUS SUPPORT

The PROBUS movement has a magazine published quarterly and designed as a forum for clubs to share experiences and seek or impart advice.

The magazines are free; clubs who choose to subscribe pay only the cost of packaging and delivery.

Probus magazine is the only publication published nationally for Probus members.

PROBUS clubs in the UK and Ireland also now have an 'umbrella' website www.probusonline.org

In addition to resources such as a directory of speakers, table graces, outing and holiday recommendations etc., each club may have its own page free of charge on which it controls the content.

A 'chat' section allows registered users to ask for and give advice more quickly than through the magazine.

Only bona fide PROBUS members may register to view the site, thus preventing unscrupulous companies from targeting members with unwanted advertising.
